

About Stratavize:

Our Why

We know the old saying “do what you love, and you’ll never work a day in your life” well... we believe it and live it. Our consulting team genuinely enjoys helping clients solve some of their toughest challenges. We L-O-V-E tackling businesses that need to reimagine how they will compete in the future. We enjoy getting in the trenches with our clients to take on tough problems like improving culture, enhancing the customer experience, or redesigning process.

What We Do

Stratavize Consulting is a consulting partner that helps mid-sized organizations reimagine and transform their business. We believe one of the biggest reasons’ teams fail is misalignment; this could be the misalignment of goals, roles, or expectations. Together, we work with our clients to overcome these challenges and other problems teams face. Without high-performing teams, leaders can’t execute. Without great leaders, teams flounder in dismay. Together, we collaborate to design a strategic plan for the entire organization focusing on everything from business direction to how to engage employees. We work with our clients from end to end; HR to operations to marketing. It’s our mission to help organizations reach their best-envisioned future.

Our Approach

Stratavize’s approach is process consultation, that means we believe in mutual respect and a relationship that the consultant isn’t coming with all the answers. We are here to help design and facilitate a process where the organization itself can develop its own solutions in a way that is specific to the needs and capabilities of the organization.

Why Do We Need an Associate Consultant?

We believe what you focus on grows and we are focused on letting mid-size organizations know the Stratavize story and how we can help them reimagine their strategy, enhance their leadership teams and upskill their team members. We are looking for a detail-oriented person that enjoys moving projects from idea to completion. As an Associate Consultant, you play a key role in helping projects come to completion for our clients.
